CONCERT DETAILS, AUGUST 4–18

The 2022 Tanglewood season brings audiences a wide spectrum of programs and works by living composers, alongside a diverse lineup of performers offering their extraordinary artistry to an expansive summer season

The Shed: Boston Symphony Orchestra and Chamber Music Performances

• Friday, August 5, 8 p.m.: Earl Lee makes his BSO assistant conductor debut in a program featuring Christina and Michelle Naughton in Poulenc's Concerto in D minor for two pianos and orchestra; the program begins with Brian Raphael Nabors' Pulse and concludes with Mendelssohn's Scottish Symphony
• Saturday, August 6, 8 p.m.: Conductor JoAnn Falletta makes her long awaited BSO/Tanglewood debut with Roberto Sierra’s Fandangos, Respighi’s Fountains of Rome and Pines of Rome, and Tchaikovsky’s Violin Concerto, featuring superstar violinist Joshua Bell.

• Sunday, August 7, 2:30 p.m.: Composer-conductor Thomas Adès leads the BSO in his composition Shanty—Over the Sea, Holst's The Planets (featuring the Lorelei Ensemble), and Mozart's Sinfonia concertante, K.364 with violinist Leonidas Kavakos and violist Antoine Tamestit (a BSO debut).

• Friday, August 12, 8 p.m.: The third "Pathways from Prague" chamber music program, curated by pianist Emanuel Ax, features Mr. Ax, violinist Leonidas Kavakos, violist Antoine Tamestit, and cellist Yo-Yo Ma in music by Janáček, Dvořák (including the Piano Quartet No. 2 in E-flat), and Kaprálová.

Please note that violinist Pamela Frank who was originally scheduled to perform was forced to withdraw from this concert because of the continuing long-term effects of COVID-19. The updated program has been adjusted to accommodate the slightly smaller ensemble of players.

• Saturday, August 13, 8 p.m.: Leonidas Kavakos headlines with Mendelssohn's Violin Concerto, on a program with Dutilleux's Métaboles, Debussy's Prelude to The Afternoon of a Faun, and Ravel's Mother Goose (complete), led by Dima Slobodeniouk.

• Sunday, August 14, 2:30 p.m.: Perennial Tanglewood favorite Yo-Yo Ma plays the Elgar Cello Concerto on a program with Anna Clyne's Masquerade, Debussy's La Mer, and Enescu's Romanian Rhapsody No. 1, led by BSO-debuting conductor Cristian Măcelaru.

About Tanglewood

Tanglewood, one of the country’s premier summer music festivals and the summer home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra since 1937, is located in the Berkshire Hills of Lenox and Stockbridge, Massachusetts.

Tanglewood returns to its full season schedule this summer, presenting eight weekends of Boston Symphony Orchestra programs, alongside Boston Pops concerts, a robust Popular Artist series, and performances by the Fellows of the Tanglewood Music Center, the orchestra’s summer music academy and a destination for many of the most talented young musicians of our time. A highlight of the summer is the reopening of Ozawa Hall and the Linde Center for Music and Learning (both closed in summer 2020 and 2021), where smaller audiences take in recitals, chamber music, and guest ensemble performances, as well as the special events of the Tanglewood Learning Institute, focused on innovative programs and audience participation. The Linde Center, the festival’s newest performance facility, opened to popular and critical acclaim in 2019. Click here for further information about Tanglewood.
Sponsorship

Berkshire Medical Center is proud to be celebrating its second year as the Official Hospital Partner of Tanglewood.
